ZEPHYR COVE RESORT & MARINA

Every kind of fun!

Enjoy food and fun at Zephyr Cove Resort

Located on one of Tahoe's most popular beaches, the Zephyr Cove Resort is a favorite among locals. Come visit just once and you'll see why.

Here, you can play sand volleyball, rent a personal watercraft or powerboat, go parasailing or enjoy a trail ride from the stables. After you've worked up an appetite, stop by the Lodge Restaurant, open for breakfast, lunch and dinner, or check out the daily specials at the Sunset Bar & Grille.

If you'd rather stay and play, you can rent a rustic cabin, a room in the Lodge or a site at the RV Park & Campground.

Plan the perfect event

Make your wedding or other special occasion truly unforgettable. Whether you want to hold your event on one of our boats, at a spot along Zephyr Cove's mile-long beach or at the resort's Shoreline Events area, our event specialists can help you with all the details. Just call 775-586-4235.

Reserve your spot

To make dinner, lodging, rental or cruise reservations, just visit our website. There, you'll also find more information about all we offer, including our free shuttle from the casinos and most local lodging properties. Or just pick up the phone.

Zephyr Cove Resort

The Tahoe Queen

The elegant Tahoe Queen is Lake Tahoe's only authentic Mississippi paddle wheeler. Recent renovations have restored the luster of the early 1900s when paddle wheelers were at the height of their popularity. On the Tahoe Queen, you'll cruise by Vikingsholm, Eagle Falls and Fannette Island and enjoy spectacular, close-up views.

Mark Twain's Scenic Emerald Bay Cruise

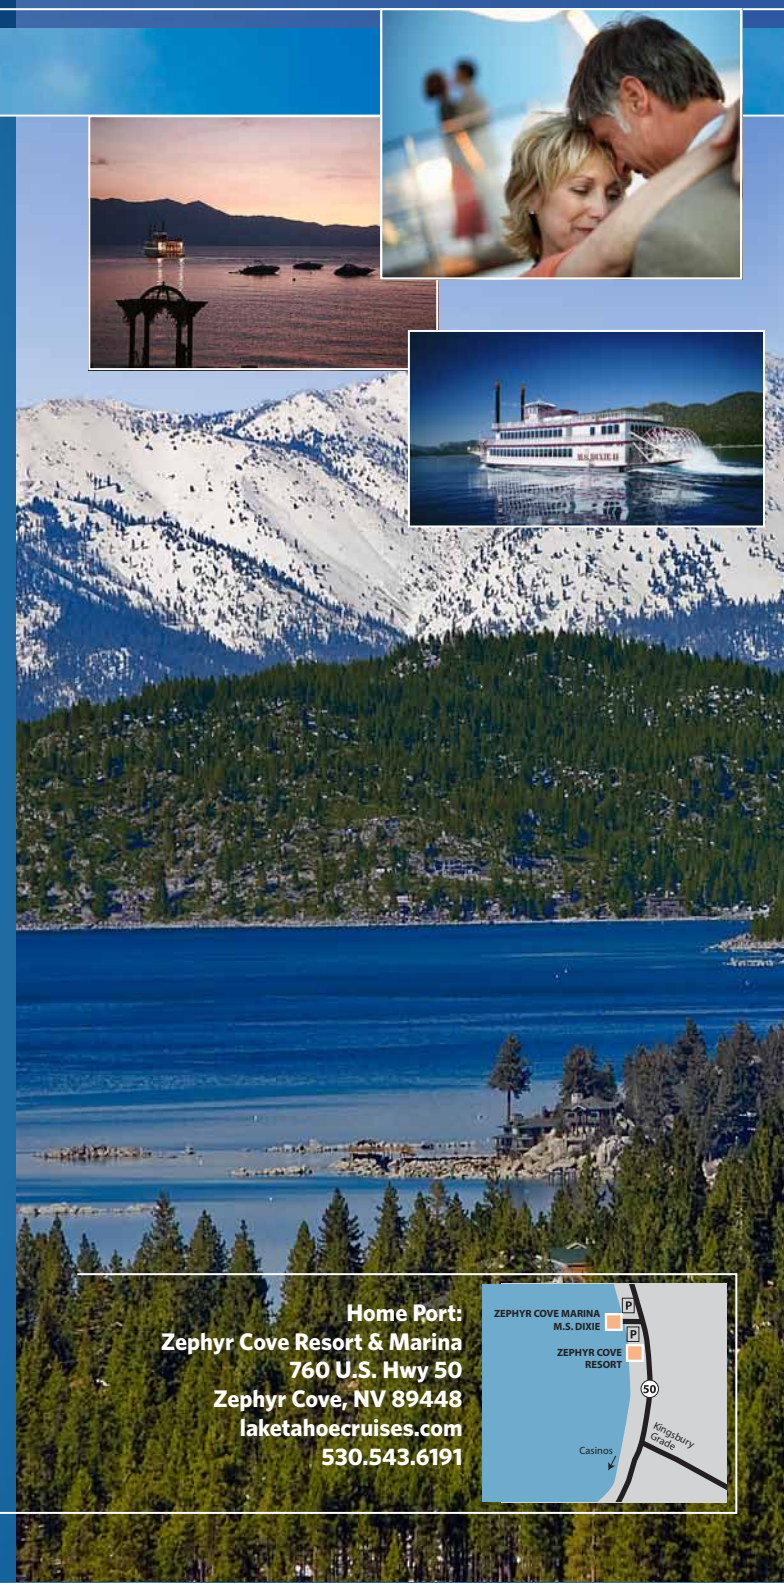

Mark Twain (played by McAvoy Layne) gives you a brief, fun-filled look at the history of Lake Tahoe during the late 1800s as you cruise through Emerald Bay. Treat yourself to the Tahoe Queen's signature chili or one of our fantastic box lunches - all available for purchase.

Sierra Sunset Dinner Cruise

Witness the pastel glow as the sun sets behind the mountain peaks as you cruise Emerald Bay at one of the most beautiful times of day. During this dinner cruise, live music sets the tone as you choose a cocktail or other beverage from the bar and sample appetizers like sweet chili chicken satay and Dungeness crab and avocado salad. You'll then be invited down to the first deck for the main course, featuring freshly carved herb-roasted beef striploin or succulent shrimp provencal and tempting side dishes. Afterward, enjoy decadent dessert, coffee and live entertainment.

The M.S. Dixie

The award-winning M.S. Dixie is the largest cruising vessel on Lake Tahoe. From the deck of this southern belle, voted "Best Cruise in Nevada" by Nevada Magazine, you'll experience true Southern hospitality and see broader vistas on your cruise through Emerald Bay.

Voyage Through the Big Water

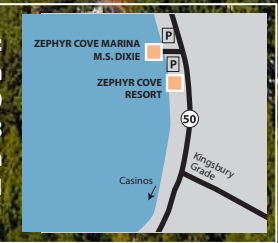

View the amazing beauty of Lake Tahoe and Emerald Bay and listen to the sounds and stories of Tahoe Troubadour Darin Talbot. Top off your experience with a fantastic meal. The onboard galley offers a full lunch menu and bar service is available on every deck.

Captain's Dinner Dance

Sail into the sunset on an evening cruise under the stars. You'll start your evening listening to stories about Fannette Island and Vikingsholm. Then savor four gourmet courses, with entrees including Angus beef top sirloin and macadamia-crusted mahimahi. You'll find the perfect complement to your meal from our selection of wine and signature cocktails, available for purchase.

Good Morning, East Shore

There's no better way to start your day than with Sunday breakfast aboard the M.S. Dixie. On our most economical cruise, you'll see Cave Rock, beautiful estate homes and secret coves, and listen to a fact-filled narration as you cruise over the sunken S.S. Tahoe. And you can choose your favorites from our breakfast buffet, including cinnamon French toast, cheese omelets, fruit salad and fresh pastries.
