OVERVIEW

Operating out of Ski Run Marina in the heart of the South Shore, Lake Tahoe Cruises offers year round cruises on the authentic paddlewheeler the Tahoe Queen. Departures include a sightseeing cruise to scenic Emerald Bay and dinner dance cruises at evening. During winter, Lake Tahoe Cruises also operates a cruise package that buses skiers and riders from the South Shore of Lake Tahoe to Squaw Valley USA and the a cruise back that features a live band and dancing. The Tahoe Queen also features a Specialty Cruise Series with events such as Pints and Paddles, Battle of the Bands, New Years Eve Cruises, Valentines Day Cruises, and an Easter brunch.

In addition to the Queen, the Tahoe Cruises fleet includes the M.S. Dixie II, which offers daily sightseeing dinner and brunch cruises, the 80-foot luxury liner Tahoe Paradise and the smaller Tahoe Princess, both of which can be chartered for special events and groups.

2008 marked the 25th Anniversary as well as a complete renovation of the famous Tahoe Queen, which will significantly enhance the guest experience with upgrades and additions including:

- Window replacements that expand scenic viewing Spacious and luxurious seating arrangements for more upscale dining ambiance
- Bar upgrades to increase beverage service capabilities and create a lounge-like social setting Furniture, carpet and other replacements to carry out the rich and luxurious saloon theme
